

August 2008

Dear Journalist:

Even though summer typically winds down in August, here at VOOM HD Networks, we are ramping things up with a variety of gold medal-worthy encore presentations of programs, specials and marathons that pay tribute to another big event occurring this month in a not-so-little place: Beijing, China. VOOM HD Networks' 15 high-def channels can be viewed in the tri-state area on Cablevision's iO digital cable service. In addition, select full-length programs will be streamed online, beginning the same day that they air on the channels.

We begin with WORLD SPORT HD's encore presentation of the 2007 PAN AMERICA GAMES, which were held in Rio, Brazil, and feature several North, Central, and South American athletes that will also participate in this year's Olympics. It will air from August 1st to the 4th. Dedication of another sort is being heralded from August 4th to the 8th with GALLERY HD's encore presentation of MOVE ON ASIA, which highlights the work of Chinese-born artists Xu Bing, Fang Lijun, Sui Jianguo and Wang Guangyi.

From August 11th to the 15th, EQUATOR HD explores the people and places that make China such an intriguing and exotic destination to visit with encore presentations of documentaries and special episodes of series about China, including CHINA CIRCUS and ULTIMATE JOURNEYS. A special encore presentation of ULTIMATE TOURIST SCAMS: CHINESE TEA CEREMONY gives viewers the lowdown on one of the top three cons piled on travelers in Beijing. This program can also be viewed online at www.equatorhd.com, beginning Tuesday, August 12th.

To celebrate BMX racing making its debut this month at the Olympics, RUSH HD pays tribute to this sport's sexier cousin with a week-long "Freestyle BMX" marathon that runs from August 18th to the 22nd. Encore episodes from shows including BMX P.I.G., AST PRESENTS, NOMADS, and METRO BMX JAM showcase the most amazing tricks in the field and the top athletes who perform them. Select programs from the BMX marathon can also be viewed, in their entirety, online at www.rushhd.com. Please check the listings attached for more information. Those who prefer the high life must indulge in ULTRA HD's special programming from August 18th to the 21st when the channel focuses on China's cutting-edge fashion, unique culinary contributions, and other luxurious things with encore presentations of select episodes of FASHION AVENUE, ULTRA EYE, APPETIZING ADVENTURES WITH LUKE MANGAN and BIG BOUTIQUE IN THE CITY.

A little closer to home, RAVE HD will feature past performances from artists on tour this summer. Be sure to tune in Friday nights this month to hear the greatest hits from the hot acts coming to a venue near you! If cool is more your style, VOOM HD MOVIES celebrates New York City, Elvis, Billy Wilder and the Pink Panther in a variety of entertaining marathons this month. Film buffs who can't make the Montreal World Film Festival get a taste – or should we say "view" – of the action when FILM FEST HD pays tribute to both films that appeared in the Festival and the directors it has celebrated. In honor of the upcoming summer blockbuster, "The Mummy: The Tomb of the Dragon Emperor," MONSTERS HD will air an all-day marathon of classic mummy movies featuring legendary horror stars Boris Karloff, Lon Chaney Jr. and Christopher Lee.

As you can see, our Olympic athletes aren't the only ones going for the gold this month. From athletes to artists, from Beijing to NYC, and from Elvis to Karloff, there is much to celebrate in August. Luckily for viewers, they can see it all, hear it all and enjoy it all from the comfort of their favorite chair.
